

Effective April 1, 2020 Gabriel Housing Corporation Board and Staff are excited to announce that Bradyn Parisian has accepted the position at GHC as the Strategic Business Development Consultant.

Bradyn is a well-respected Métis Businessman and Community Leader that seeks out new challenges and opportunities. He holds MBA and undergraduate finance degrees from the University of Regina, and certifications in innovation and entrepreneurship from Stanford University and MIT. He is also an ICD.D designation holder from the Institute of Corporate Directors.

His commitment to life-long learning, and giving back to the community as a philanthropist, volunteer, entrepreneur and teacher is exceptional. In addition to all of these roles, Bradyn will now be taking on the position of Gabriel Housing Corporation's first Strategic Business Development Consultant.

Bradyn currently serves as a Corporate Director on the boards of Cowessess Ventures, George Gordon Developments, and the First Nations Power Authority. Bradyn is also currently the Rawlinson Executive-in-Residence (Indigenous Entrepreneurship) and a sessional instructor at the Hill & Levene Schools of Business and First Nations University of Canada, where he teaches finance and entrepreneurship courses.

With this exciting new direction that the Board of Directors have chosen for Gabriel Housing Corporation, our plan is to move forward through the challenges facing the Affordable Housing industry. We welcome Bradyn as a leader through the upcoming challenges and rewarding experiences that lay ahead for Gabriel Housing Corporation's Board, Staff and Tenants.

WELCOME BRADYN!!!

Bradyn can be reached at (306) 775-2905 or by email at bparisian.ghc@sasktel.net.